Tender for Consultancy Services Related to a Study into the Competition Landscape of Online Retail in Hong Kong

1. The Competition Commission (“Commission”) is an independent statutory body established under the Competition Ordinance (Cap. 619) (“Ordinance”). The primary function of the Commission is to investigate conduct that may contravene the competition rules of the Ordinance and enforce the provisions of the Ordinance. The Commission also performs advocacy and policy advisory functions to promote public understanding of the Ordinance and give advice to the Government on competition matters.
2. The Commission is inviting tenders for the provision of consultancy services related to a study into the competition landscape of online retail in Hong Kong. The procurement of consultancy services is being conducted through an open tender exercise. The appointed consultant will be expected to work with the Commission to conduct research and draft a report in relation to the above mentioned topic.
