

Competition Commission Radio API - Scripts

“Combat market sharing cartels”

Voice-over: Sharing is good, but businesses sharing markets may contravene the Competition Ordinance.

When businesses collude to carve up markets, they agree not to compete for each other’s customers. They can do whatever they want when customers have no other choices. In the end, consumers will suffer.

To report market sharing, call the Competition Commission at 3462 2118!