Competition Commission to participate in Entrepreneur Day 2019

The Competition Commission (Commission) is participating in the Entrepreneur Day 2019 on 16 and 17 May as part of its ongoing advocacy efforts to reach out to businesses, in particular small and medium enterprises (SMEs) and new start-ups, in Hong Kong. Organised by the Hong Kong Trade Development Council, the Entrepreneur Day provides an excellent platform for the Commission to promote awareness and understanding of the Competition Ordinance (Ordinance).

The Commission's booth at the event will feature informative panels about the benefits and major elements of the Ordinance. It will also display practical information on how to identify cartel conduct and what to do should it be suspected. Educational videos and an interactive computer game are also available to facilitate and reinforce understanding of the Ordinance and different anti-competitive conduct. During the exhibition, brochures on various topics and a practical toolkit for SMEs will be distributed.

Businesses and members of the public are welcome to visit the Commission's booth.
