Competition Commission to participate in SmartBiz Expo 2019

The Competition Commission (Commission) is participating in the SmartBiz Expo 2019 from 4 to 6 December as part of its ongoing advocacy to reach out to businesses, in particular small and medium enterprises (SMEs), in Hong Kong. Organised by the Hong Kong Trade Development Council, the SmartBiz Expo provides an excellent platform for the Commission to promote awareness and understanding of the Competition Ordinance (Ordinance).

The Commission's booth at the event will feature informative panels about the benefits and major elements of the Ordinance. It will also display an overview of the judgments in Hong Kong's first two competition cases as well as guidance on what to do should anticompetitive conduct be suspected. There will be educational videos and an interactive computer game to facilitate and reinforce understanding of the Ordinance and different anti-competitive conduct. During the exhibition, brochures on various topics and a practical toolkit for SMEs will be distributed.

Businesses and members of the public are welcome to visit the Commission's booth.
