Competition Commission Hosts Inaugural International Conference
The Hong Kong Competition Exchange 2018
*Registration Now Open!

The Competition Commission (Commission) is hosting its first-ever international conference on competition law and policy – The Hong Kong Competition Exchange 2018 (CompEx). Registration for the event is now open.

Set to be held on 1 and 2 November 2018 at the Harbour Grand Kowloon Hotel, Hong Kong, the CompEx will bring together a stellar line-up of over 30 heavyweight speakers from around the world, including judges from Mainland China, the European Union, South Africa, the United Kingdom, the United States and Hong Kong as well as enforcers from Canada, Mainland China, the European Union, Indonesia, Ireland, Pakistan and Singapore. Other speakers include leading academics, legal practitioners, business professionals and corporate leaders. The Financial Secretary of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, Mr. Paul Chan Mo-po, will speak at the conference opening.

Featuring six stimulating panels on important and trending competition topics including “Effects of competition law on businesses and their innovation”, “International perspectives on adjudicating competition cases”, “Three years of the Competition Ordinance in Hong Kong” and “China’s Anti-Monopoly Law at Ten”, this highly anticipated event will guarantee lively and insightful discussions that are not to be missed.

The event has been accredited by both The Law Society of Hong Kong and The Hong Kong Institute of Directors with 8 CPD points, and by The Hong Kong Institute of Chartered Secretaries with 8.5 CPD points.

All registrants can enjoy early bird discounts through 14 September with special rates for academics, students and pupil barristers. Register now while seats last!

Programme and registration details are available on the HK CompEx website at hkcompex.org. For enquiries, please contact the Conference Secretariat at +852 2110 2125.
