The Competition Commission responds to the Government's appointment of member to the Commission

The Competition Commission (Commission) thanks Mr. Larry Kwok Lam-kwong for his contribution to the Commission, noting the Government's appointment of Mr. Albert Wong Kwai-huen as a member to the Commission to fill the vacancy left by Mr. Kwok with effect from 1 June 2014.

"We thank Mr. Larry Kwok for his significant contribution to the start up work of the Commission over the past year, particularly in establishing the governance system of the Commission, developing draft guidelines and recruiting staff. We also warmly welcome the appointment of Mr. Albert Wong," the Commission spokesman said.
